

CLOAKS! CLOAKS! CLOAKS!

AT HEIRONIMUS & BRUGH'S, 206 COMMERCE STREET.

Decisive Reduction in Prices of New Stylish Cloaks of This Season's Manufacture.

In going through our stock we have overhauled several lines of styles in cloaks, which have not been moving at a proper gain.

We have decided to put "rapid transit" prices on these and will offer this week, beginning Monday, November 27, the following:

These jackets embrace the best cloaks in our stock and are not in any way passed nor undesirable. They are all made with the new, large sleeves, full back, new length, etc.

There are about 25 of them, in sizes from 32 to 42.

They come in Golden Brown, Dark Green and Black.

The Prices Have Been From $12.50 to $25. Prices to Reduce Stock Will be:

Ladies' Jackets which were $12.50 are now $9.

Ladies' Jackets which were $15 are now $11.

Ladies' Jackets which were $18.50 are now $14.

Ladies' Jackets which were $20 are now $15.

Ladies' Jackets which were $22.50 are now $16.50.

This reduction offers opportunity for supplying yourself with a new stylish cloak at less than manufacturer's prices.
Don't delay.

CHILDREN'S CLOAKS.

We will also offer our entire line of children's long cloaks in Gretchen styles, with new, large sleeves, capes, etc., at like reduction. Sizes from 4 to 12 years.

The offering in underwear and dress goods mentioned last week still in force.

friends in Lynchburg.

W. W. Page, of Salem, is reported very sick with rheumatism.

Roy B. Smith has returned from a visit to relatives in Bedford City.

E. J. Page has removed to Salem where he will reside in the future.

J. Coles Terry, a prominent merchant of Mont Mountain, was in the city yesterday.

Rev. W. C. Campbell preached to the young ladies at Hollins' Institute Sunday evening.

Miss Elizabeth Downey, of Frederick, Md., is in the city visiting her brother, Dr. B. D. Downey.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Graham Anderson returned Saturday morning from a brief visit to Philadelphia.

Acting Police Sergeant Austin, who has been sick for several days, was much improved yesterday.

W. H. Seymour, of 332 Dale avenue s. w., is the happy father of a ten-pound baby boy. Mother and child are doing well.

Chambers O'gain, the station keeper, who has been sick for ten days at his boarding house on Ninth avenue s. w., is able to be out again.

in the city visiting friends. Mr. Collins was the first yardmaster ever employed in this city. He was transferred about ten years ago to Lambert's Point, by the Norfolk and Western. He resigned his position there to accept a more lucrative one at Louisville.

DEAD INFANT'S BODY FOUND.

Coroner's Inquest Reports That Death Was Caused by Persons Unknown.

About 10 o'clock yesterday the body of an infant male child was found near the entrance to the southeast corner of the yard around Hotel Roanoke, by Patrick Foy, the florist at the hotel.

The infant was carefully wrapped up in paper and covered with a blue cloth.

Mr. Foy notified the authorities and the body was removed to the undertaking establishment of Oakey & Wool-wine, at which place the coroner's inquest was held at 4:30 in the afternoon.

Dr. S. P. Staples, the coroner, expanded the following jury: T. S.
Kenneally, foreman; M. J. Feather, John M. Tucker, Jr., J. W. Myrtle, J. R.
Boon and P. M. Carter. Dr. H. E. Jones after making an examination of the body testified that premature birth caused death and that there were no marks of violence.

Mr. Foy testified that he saw a parcel lying in the yard near the fence and upon examination it proved to be an infant.

The jury after consultation returned the following verdict: "We, the jury, find that the child came to its death by premature childbirth, through the instrumentality of person or persons unknown."

TO ASSIST THEIR FELLOW WORKMEN.

Roanoke Machine Works Relief Association Formed.

An organization known as the Roanoke Machine Works Relief Association was formed Saturday afternoon at the shops for the purpose of raising funds and relieving the employees of the shops, who have had no work to do for several weeks, and for those whose pay roll will not support their families.

Edward C. Welch was elected permanent chairman and J. E. Richards treasurer. A collection amounting to about $50 besides donations of coal, wood and clothing was taken up, and much more was promised.

GOOD NEWS FOR HOUSEKEEPERS.

WE ARE glad to note that the Armour Packing Company, of Kansas City, Mo., has opened a branch of their business in Roanoke for the handling of all kinds of provisions and fresh meats. The business will be conducted as one of their numerous branch houses over the country under the direct supervision of their own employees, making Roanoke a distributing point for the Southwestern Virginia section. Their first consignments of fancy dressed stall fed cattle will arrive here Wednesday morning and will be found on sale in the city market at the following stalls: E. B.
Catt, F. M. Taylor, C. W. Turner, W. J.
Houser, N. Rench, H. Hock, W. C.
Overby.

The assortment on sale will consist of the choicest stall-fed cattle, spring lamb and Colorado mutton. All these goods will bear the United States government inspection stamp, insuring the public of meats pure and wholesome and free from any impure animals are heir to. The public generally should patronize and encourage an enterprise that will offer at all seasons of the year the best and most wholesome food products and at the same time establish a business that will tend to advance Roanoke as a provision market and distributing point for this section.
